

Luke Priddis Foundation

Supporting kids with Autism Spectrum Disorders

MCHP Architects are proud to see the opening of the new Luke Priddis Foundation Centre for Autism on High Street, Penrith in 2017.

MCHP Architects proudly donated their architectural services for the design and documentation of the new centre.

We wish the foundation and the children and families who use the new centre the very best.

